Graduate Diploma Commercial Law

Registered Trade Mark Attorney (Australia & New Zealand)

Michelle has over 20 years' experience in intellectual property (IP) gaining her registration as a Trade Mark Attorney in 2001.

Prior to joining Murray Trento & Associates, Michelle gained extensive Trade Mark Law experience in top tier law firms in Melbourne and boutique Trade Mark specialist firms in Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane.

In her practice, Michelle has represented start-ups, large multinational corporations, universities and government organisations and enjoys assisting both local and foreign clients in all aspects of Trade Mark Law, Design Law and domain name matters.

As a result of acting for many clients in contentious matters, Michelle has developed good working relationships with many Barristers in Melbourne and Sydney and can assist clients regarding the selection of the most appropriate advocate for any contentious matters requiring an advocate before the Federal Court.

In particular Michelle has extensive experience advising and assisting clients in relation to:

- Prosecuting and registering Trade Marks in Australia, New Zealand and overseas
- Selection of suitable brands and extensive prior Trade Mark availability searching
- Preparation of evidence and attending Trade Mark Opposition Hearings before the Australian and New Zealand Trade Mark Offices
- Trade Mark infringement opinions and advice
- Management of large Trade Mark portfolios
- Managing and resolving domain name disputes
- Selecting and briefing counsel and providing litigation support
- Monitoring competitor activity with respect to brands
- Registering designs in Australia, New Zealand and overseas

Ms Michelle Wilson's Professional Associations:

- Fellow of the Institute and Patent and Trade Mark Attorneys (FIPTA)
- Licensing Executives Society of Australia and NZ (LESANZ)
- The International Trademark Association (INTA)
